ARIEL'S BOATS WERE SMASHED

The American schooner Ariel, deep laden with a coal cargo, arrived yesterday morning from Newcastle, 58 days out. The cargo is consigned to J. J. Moore & Co.

When off New Zealand the Ariel was struck by a gale which did considerable damage. Two gaff top-sails were carried away, while tremendous seas boarded the vessel and smashed up two of the boats. The bow of one was smashed into smithereens. The schooner's decks were almost continually awash during the time heavy weather was on. Otherwise the vessel behaved all right, and no one was hurt. The mate has had rheumatism for some time and his watch was taken by the captain.

Midnight Lights.

The establishment of lighthouses or lightships at Midway Islands is a subject which has been receiving the consideration of the Navy Department for some time, and it is the intention of the Secretary of the Navy to call the attention of Congress to the necessity for the establishment of a proper system of lights for these far away possessions of the United States. At present there are no safeguards to navigation installed in the Midway group, and now that the principal island of the group has become a port of call for all Government transports crossing from San Francisco to Guam and Manila, the necessity for Government attention becomes manifest—Army and Navy Journal.

Mongolia Due Today.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Mongolia is due this morning from San Francisco. She will remain outside and her passengers and cargo will be brought ashore in launches and lighters. The vessel will probably resume her voyage to the Orient late this afternoon.

Edward May's Cargo.

TACOMA, Dec. 13.—The American bark Edward May, Captain Hansen, has completed her cargo at the Roslyn bunkers here and will tow to sea this morning. She has a cargo of about 1400 tons of Roslyn coal for Kahului, Maui.

Protet Took Mail.

The French cruiser Protet sailed yesterday morning for San Francisco direct, carrying a large quantity of mail. Commodore Adegard expects to reach San Francisco about January 10.

Shipping Notes.

The bark St. Katherine and the barkentine Archer are awaiting sugar cargoes to take to the coast.

The ship Abby Palmer is 133 days out from Kaanapali for Delaware Breakwater. The delay in reaching port will give additional value to her sugar cargo.

The ship Fort George goes to Kahului from San Francisco this month to take on sugar for Delaware Breakwater and the Hawaiian Isles goes to Kaanapali for the same purpose.

The steamer Mauna Loa is due today from Hawaii and Maui ports. The W. G. Hall will take her place for the next two trips allowing the vessel to go on the ways for an overhauling.

The Iroquois made a special trip to Pearl Harbor yesterday afternoon with several friends of Captain Niblack aboard. Captain Niblack of the revenue cutter Bear was among the guests.

The schooner E. B. Jackson is now ninety days out from Newcastle, presumably bound for this port, although there seems to be an opinion floating about that she has gone to San Francisco. Ninety days make a long voyage, especially when compared to the trip of the schooner Ariel which arrived yesterday from Newcastle fifty-eight days out.
